TAC

TEACHING AD(H)D CHILDREN

Consortium meeting
at Dublin City University, Ireland

The Erasmus+ project TAC - Teaching AD(H)D Children aims to contribute to the adaptation of the extensive scientific knowledge about AD(H)D for teacher education, so that it can become a supporting pillar of school practice in the sense of inclusive education.

AD(H)D challenges teachers

We can assume that on average there is one pupil with AD(H)D in every mainstream class.

The TAC project will promote successful teaching competencies required to accommodate and support children with ADHD through evidence-based interventions.
